Dear Friends,

I am pleased, as Leader of Canada's NDP, to extend my heartiest congratulations to all members and staff of the Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada (PIPSC) on your 100th Anniversary.

On reaching this significant milestone in the history of the Canadian labour movement, allow me to pay tribute to your tireless work to fight to improve the lives of Canadian working people.

I commend the dedicated members of PIPSC for playing an important role in safeguarding the social, economic, and environmental wellbeing of all Canadians. Let's continue to work together on the common goal of a better Canada.

On behalf of Canada's New Democrats, please accept my best wishes for continued success in the years ahead.

Warmest regards,

Jagmeet Singh
Leader, New Democratic Party of Canada
